“ Mr. Jones was a kind, get-up-and-go, tech-savvy, gentleman that loved God and his family, especially his children - Carl Jr., Carla, Tyrone, Lashon, Kevin, and Monique. Mr. Jones loved having time with the grandchildren and the great-grands too.

You may have caught Mr. Jones barbecuing, volunteering at the church, repairing someone's cable, and eating Lashons' delicious sweet potato pie on the holidays. Mr. Jones stayed on the move, active in mind and heart.

Mr. Jones took such good care of my best friend Lashon when she moved to Atlanta. I remember thinking, Wow, this is how a Father and Daughter relationship should be! Over the years, Lashon would tell me of all the wonderful times they had together: the Father's Day dinner celebrations, fixing broken pipes, the haircuts, phone calls filled with laughter, beautiful birthday cards, home cooked meals, quiet visits, gentle hugs and encouraging words...

Be strong Lashon and take hold of all the loving memories. Mr. Jones is fondly remembered, loved, and will be missed.
