“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family of Mr. Carl Reed. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. Comfort can be found in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ To the Family and Friends of Mr. Reed: I offer sincere condolences and Scriptural encouragement to you all. I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. Please remember that God made a provision to "raise up" dead ones when "He (God) sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9).

God promises a future when "death will be no more" and "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (Revelation 21:3,4 and John 5:28,29). God is faithful and "He cannot lie." (Titus 1:2b)

“ To the Family of Mr. Carl Reed, I wish to express my condolences as you endure the loss of your love one. The death of a loved one is one of the most devastating experiences a human can face. At times the loss may be unbearable. During this most difficult time, Draw close to God in prayer. Philippians 4:7 tells us that God will grant us the mental peace we need by means of Jesus Christ. May this peace be with you now, and the days ahead. For additional encouraging information please visit www.jw.org
