I Am Free

Don't grieve for me, for now, I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.

I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day, to laugh,
To love, to work, or play.
Tasks undone must stay that way
I've found that peace at the close of the day.
If parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah, yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wants me now, He set me free.

It has now been over 5 months since my youngest son, Carlton, has passed away. I continue to miss his physical presence in my life on a daily basis. I know you are now with the Lord in heaven. As you once stated, "It's not goodbye but see you later ". Son, I hope to see you again in the afterlife. Love. Mom. (Bellzoria Y.Wright)

“ Carlton was my first friend in Georgia after I moved there during my teen/high school years. I remember staying in his family’s home. I remember him making me PB&J sandwiches and inviting me to play video games while I was so homesick and sad. He even took me to the movies. He was just a kind cousin who was always quick to smile whenever we talked. I communicated with last October and assumed we had more time to get our families together, but God had other plans. I’m praying for his peace and freedom from pain; I pray that he’s with Jesus and his earthly father, my Uncle Carey. Sending love and peace to the family.

“ I give my heart felt condolences to Carl's friends and family for their lost. The Carl I knew was someone who was dedicated. He passionately pursued that which he took interest in. Even when difficulties came and things seemed hopeless, he wasn't a person to let go or give up. His passion lead to endurance. I believe the legacy he left is a reminder to us all to pursue your passions even through difficulties so that the fruit your life bears is sweet because you endured to the end.

“ I am very thankful to God for the 45 years of life that I was allowed to have with Carlton, my youngest son. Carlton was kind, considerate of others, and had a Sanguine personality. His sense of humor and "way with words" could "light up a room." The world has lost a great human being. I will truly miss you, and hope to see you again in the afterlife. As you have often said, "Never say good-bye" --" but see you later." " I love you and I will see you later my son."
