“ Grief can be so hard, but our cherished memories help us cope. Hold tight to those memories....Lean on each other for support.... And look to God’s word the Bible, for comfort and strength. James 4:8 encourages; “Draw close to God, and He will draw close to you.”

“ Carlton was a great friend and was always someone who I could count on when I served on the Shiloh Marching Band Board. He had a calming presence and was tireless in his efforts. I have many fond memories of working with him and Diana and will greatly miss Carlton. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ Sending words of comfort to the family as God has called one of his finest specimen to come home. Carlton will be missed by many. His kindness and wisdom was admired and adored. The world is a better place for all of the places he laid his hand. No words can express the sorrow we feel. May God be your comfort during this time.

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I offer condolences to you all. Our Creator is aware of your sorrow and he has already made a resurrection provision... "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." ~1John 4:9. Jesus confirmed his role in the resurrection when he was on the earth and he assures us... "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy in the loss of your beloved family member. Words of comfort to help with the sadness and grief can be found at Psalm 147:3 which says: He (God) heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds. And the promise at Jeremiah 31:13b “I will change their mourning into exultation. I will comfort them and give them joy instead of their grief.” May these scriptures comfort you at this time of bereavement.
