“ Only as you say (hey little girl) I was so heartbroken to know of your passing. Thinking back to all of the wonderful memories we had about life, about lessons for the children. You name it we talked about it. You are a great leader and a great friend to have in this life. I miss you Baby so much. It was my honor to have been in your life. Good well done .

“ Happy Mother's Day my dear sister, I'm going to miss our early morning chats and your words of encouragement to start our day. You were my beam of light in my darkest times, I promise to never let this light go out before the Lord say so. Until we meet again. Thank you Beard family for sharing this wonderful lady with me.

“ Words cannot express how much you have touched my life and so many children. You were a true friend to me. Thank you for always being there for me. You have left a legacy , so many memories of fun times together with the kids in the classroom. You have taught so many life lessons they will never forget. Thank you for making a difference in our lives. You are a true friend, sister, leader and I don't know how to move on without your encouragement. I miss you so much. Sleep on my friend, heaven has gain another beautiful angel. 😊
