

Carolyn Jennings

June 16, 1955 - February 9, 2020

Carolyn Jennings, daughter of Clara Turner, and the late Clenton Turner, was born June 16, 1955 in Atlanta, Georgia. She graduated Avondale High School in Decatur, Georgia where she met her high school sweetheart, the late George Jennings IV and many lifelong friends. On June 24,, 1977 George and Carolyn were married. Through their union their daughter LaToya was born. Carolyn was a gentle and loving person that spread love and kindness to anyone she came in contact with. During her 46 years of working at Emory University as a unit clerk, co-workers became family. Just as Carolyn was dedicated to her job, she was devoted in all areas of her life as a wife, mother, sister, aunt, daughter and a faithful member of Good Works Christian Ministries. You could always count on her to be a listening ear, make you laugh, and be your biggest cheerleader. Carolyn enjoyed listening to music, never missed the opportunity to enjoy a nice meal, and spending quality time with family and friends. Carolyn departed this life on Sunday, February 9, 2020. She was preceded in death by her brother Ricky Turner, father Clenton Turner, father in-law George Jennings III, and sister in-law Ann Jennings. Carolyn leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter LaToya Jennings, mother Clara Turner, mother-in-law Annie Jennings, sister Valerie Winbush (Darrell), brother in-law Earl Jennings, sister in-law Delbra Jennings, nephews Jeremy Winbush, Darwin Jennings, Daymon Jennings, Darrick Jennings, nieces Chandra Jennings, Kalida Jennings, and a host of family and friends.

“ We would like to extend our condolences to the family. And just a little while all of the pain and sorrow that we feel from the death of our love ones will cease and be replaced with joy, because the former things have passed away. Thinking of you all.

“ Carolyn was always one of my favorite co-workers on 6G at Emory. She was always calm in a storm, always respectful and honest. She rarely complained about her work and she had so many friends at Emory. She has been sorely missed from her 6g family. My condolences to all who loved her. Valerie
