“ Ms Carrie. I've known you all my life. When daddy told me of your passing I immediately went down memory lane, Meelee (me), Darlene, Resa, Nesee and Brina as you would call us, and all the things that we would get into.... yelling our names in that high pitched voice, which you later use for the voice of the Lord. I have always known you to be such a sweet and gentle soul..and I know you are now resting in his arms because to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Rest in Peace Loody ;)”

“ My sister-in-law Carrie Cooper. Although the words in-law was never used. I have known you for some 30 something years. But this last year was something special. We bonding more this last year than the previous years we have known each other. I will always cherish the days we picked collards. turnip greens, peppers, etc. (you picked, I watched) well, I picked where you told me there wasn't any ants. You know how I feel about ants. You telling me the way you all did it in the country when you all were growing up. I am so thankful that God saw fit for us to spend this last year laughing, talking, and sharing just whatever. I know God has smiled on you and his arms awaits you.
Love and Miss You

“ My Sister Carrie, I am appreciative of the time we shared together on this side of the river Jordan. I look forward to the time we will rejoice again in Heaven as I know you are within the arms of the LORD. Sleep, my sister and obtain your rest as you fought the good fight and served the Master! We will truly miss you but your spirit lives on within all of us. Goodnight my Sister Carrie.....
