“ I am very sorry for the loss of your loved one, you have my sincere condolences. Grief can be so hard, but our cherished memories help us cope. Hold tight to those memories....Lean on each other for support.... And look to God’s word the Bible, for comfort and strength. James 4:8 encourages; “Draw close to God, and He will draw close to you.”

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I extend condolences to you all. Keep in mind..."God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9. Jesus assures us..."I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25
