“ The last time I saw Cassandra was @ my brothers wake in East Orange,NJ she & Her (pop) Billy as she called him were very supportive of her sister Octavia..
Cassandra was very impressed with the Choir & told me she wanted to hear more.. that really touched my heart..such a beautiful Lady she was & will be missed..
My condolences & Prayers are with Larry, Missy, Derrick, Betty , Billy & Rhonda..

“ Strangers on the train then meeting at a family service Cassandra with a big smile walks up to me and to my surprise she says she is married to my cousin Larry and we are family. Moving forward when we would see each other on the train we would sit next to each other and laugh the whole way, she was such a sweet person with the purest heart.

Love always cousin Florence ❤️

“ Dear Larry and family. We are so sorry for your dear loss. Cassandra was a lovely cousin and person. Our last visit was over a delicious meal at your home in New Jersey. Junior and I truly enjoyed ourselves and felt right at home. Cassandra will be missed by all. Praying your strength in The Lord. Be blessed. Deepest condolences, Alice Beasley and family.

“ A poem for Cassandra

Traveling

No more thinking about the pains and pressures of life; God has always provided my every living need.

No more worrying about what tomorrow may bring, because I have always known that Jesus is my king.

No more praying and hoping that better days are coming, for I know that my better days are already here.

I decided that I would just put on my traveling shoes, and wait for Jesus to make a move

Jesus and I have finally reached our destination, and my head is held high, I am stepping out with my master, because he is my guide

These traveling shoes I have on are made of gold, Jesus and I are hand in hand, and I know he will not let me fall, because I have answered his call.

Keep on traveling Ms. Sandra, we love you

“ Ms. Sandra (which is what I would always call you), My heart is heavy, but I know that God knows best. I will forever remember the laughs we had, even when I moved, you were always concerned about how and what I was doing, and I so thank you for always thinking of me. I will truly miss you.

*Loving you always rest on Ms. Sandra, and enjoy your new eternal home.

“ Our friendship was priceless, we have been friends for over 20 plus years, and I must say that I feel very blessed to have had you in my life. You have been there for me in my worse and best times. I love you like a sister. I will truly miss you my friend, but I know that you are at peace, and for that I am grateful. I Love you dearly.

Your Friend
