“ Cassie was a kid sister to the Pugh family. She was approximately 13 yoa and I was approximately 17 yao. I was extremely sick and snuggled in my bed when hyper mischievous Cassie creeped in my room. I asked her to leave my room because I was sick and didn't feel like playing with her. Did Cassie leave? Of course not. She pulled at my pillow. When that didn't work she proceeded to tug on my blanket resulting in a tug of war with her. I had no energy to get up and put her out of my room. I eventually got my blanket from her while telling her to "Get out!" I tucked my blanket back around me as Cassie laughed her raspy laugh while I was now sick and angry. Next thing I knew...dear Cassie is standing and jumping in my bed while laughing yet staying out of my arms reach. I mustard enough strength to sit up and seeing her antics made me laugh although if I wasn't so sick it would have been so good for her. After she saw me sitting up and laughing she quickly jumped off my bed and ran out my room.

It dawned on me a couple days later she was only attempting to make me feel better. Fast forward 50 years, Cassie has spent her life trying to make others life better frequently sacrificing herself. Luv you little sister and will miss your dear spirit. Much love to our second family/friends. From the Pugh's.

Thanks to the Pugh Family. Our ever lasting friendship and love has lasted for years.. we met in Germany and had so much in common besides being a Military family. Sometime "God" send s , people your way for a purpose & they grow together & stay connected for the rest of their lives. Separated by Geography didn't make is difference,we always were there in good times and bad times, trusting in GOD'sfavor & love. Always there for each other. The Father & mother, , The Rev Dennis & Lela Pugh,Denise, , Sylvia,Sandra & Jr. to our, Rev Marvin & Eleanor Hurst Jr, Lynette,Spencer.. , Cassandra,,Kenneth (Chris),Mike& Lee . The memories good & bad,the church that gave us a great foundation & allowed us to grow. No matter where we went,we were always in touch. I thank all of you for being here for Cassandra. I saw Denice & Sandra & her Husband. I saw Denise but did x's not realize who she was until we passed her. Forgive me Denise.My body was there but not my mind. Thank you for your prayers and presence and love and your monetary gifts.This has shocked us , was not prepared & so hard to accept. But I do know that "GOD" does not make a mistake. Pray for us, .we need strength to overcome the pain we now feel. I can't believe that My Cassandra is not here to say good morning to me today. Take care of my friend & take care of each other I Love you all. Mother & Ftiend Eleanor Hurst. Weeping endures but a night But Joy cometh in the morning.

I am blessed to read the loving comments from so many people that knew & loved my Daughter Cassandra. . This has shocked all of us far & near..we must accept her being callei appd to a higher level & I thank "GOD" for allowing me to have Her with us for (63 years) . She was very active & outgoing. God gave her many gifts & she used them all.Our family is large in number & we all appreciate the Love & . all of you shared.Praying works & I do believe that Cassandra is resting now with her family members that were waiting & watching for her. May God bless all of you for your time and concern. Thank you Cassandra's Mom.

My days are filled with many joyful memories & much Love & Laughter, Hugs & Kisses. Cassandra was a Gifted & an achiever, fearless, a believer of GOD, who guided her footsteps daily. She was filled with ambition and belief in her ability to set & accomplished goals, she loved people & her family. As a daughter, sister,mother, grandmother, aunt, cousin, friend for life, decorator, event planner, financial planner, key note speaker,cook, long distance driver, frequent flyer, highdiver +swimmer, risk taker,long distance driver,gift giver,family photographer & had more than (3000) pictures on her phone, which she displayed on each family members & friend's birthday q year. She was tall-6feet 9-1/2 inches, wore her hair cut short & Blonde, skin smooth as silk,& light brown eyes & skin. Nice figure & good straight white teeth. Beautiful smile but had an attitude & could lose her mouth when she got angry. She was generous with her giving, always had extra gift for the forgotten guest. Played simple games at b/day parties. Let up with all families events. Extraordinary loving with her Mother, Siblings , Children,(hers & others.Unique and blessed. She worshiped her Dad. Her name sake Marvin / Marvina. She was our 2nd daughter, our 3rd. Arrow . I believe she lived her life and lived it abundantly.Now she is still working for the Lord. To say that I will miss her does not begin to describe how I feel at this moment. But I thank GOD for allowing me to have Cassandra for 63 years. Always Loved, but never forgotten I. Pray for our family & bless all of you. Her Mom .

“ Cassie, I CANNOT grasp the realization of not hearing your voice and laughter again! Our families go back a loooong ways, back to the '70's in Germany. We'd often taunt each other about one thing or another(lol), sing in the Gospel Hour choir with ALL our siblings, act up in church...just a myriad of fun times, too many to mention. I am truly thankful to God that HE brought us together and made our tour overseas a wondrous adventure! Not only that, once we returned state-side, the adventures continued. We love the fact that we are extensions of each other's family. I am going to miss you and your radiant LIGHT terribly!
Lord God, I pray your comfort and peace for the Hurst family...IN JESUS' MIGHTY NAME. Amen.

“ Cassie. 💖 Thank you for being a beacon of light in this world. Your zest for life, your love for parties and adventures brought joy to so many lives. You made everyone you felt a strong connection with feel like family, including Andrew and I. Your love and presence will be sorely missed.

My deepest condolences to the Hurst family, my adopted family. Her love for you all was profound and her absence leaves a void in our hearts. May you find solace and peace in the beautiful memories you shared and may her spirit of bringing everyone together continue to guide you through this difficult time. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

Cassandra, you laughed out loud and took every moment to live life to the fullest. Cheers my friend to showing us how to live a limitless life. Now turn up heaven. 💖💋💋

“ To my dearest friend Cassandra,

Life will never be the same without you. I will miss all of our long deep thought provoking discussions and our unplanned adventures! We were always doing things on impulse and always lived out loud in the moment. Whether it was travel, trying new food, finding some new project to work on, we always had a great time and shared the most laughs! You did everything with a spirit of excellence and you would do anything for those you love. I'm so thankful for our friendship. I will miss you reaching out on my birthday every year. You would always come up with something to top the year before. Our treasured memories will forever live in my heart. Until we meet again...

“ This one is very hard. I known Cassandra for 25 years but formally introduced 10 years ago. Cassandra was very Smart, loving, giving and an very outgoing person. She loved her family dearly. If you need anything, CASSANDRA was there. I can remember when my parents house caught on fire and they lost everything. Cassandra called me and said Tonya if you need anything, just let me know. I will always love you, Austin and your entire family. Please continue to keep CASSANDRA'S family uplifted in prayer, she never met a stranger.

“ My deepest condolences to the Hurst family... Cassy called me in March and we were able to catch up a bit, it made my day talking to her again. I can hear her voice and laugh. I was happy to hear how well she was doing and she said Austin was loving his new school!  I told her I see how big the kids are getting online and how much we missed the whole Hurst family and to tell everyone hello. I told her to let me know when she was ready to retire in a few years to St. Augustine, I would love to have her closer... Cassy was such a vibrant, kind, & welcoming person, she will be surly missed by many. Sending prayers & hugs.
