“ Mrs.Cassandra Sullivan was a very nice neighbor.She was always friendly.Sometimes we would stand outside and talk and it was always a pleasant conversation.I admired her little garden where she would grow tomatoes and peppers and she would offer me some.When Mr.Sullivan would cut my grass ,Mrs.Sullivan would call me and say" Gretchen ,make sure you compliment him on how good the yard look,because he loves compliments".I would laugh and say well he really do a great job so I was going to compliment him anyway,and we'd laugh.She was a nice and beautiful woman that I could tell she loved her family.She will be missed
