

Cassandra V. Williams

March 1, 1957 - October 23, 2022

Cassandra Voncile Williams, affectionately known as “Binky” was born March 1, 1957, in Chicago, Illinois to the late Melvin Hester and the Late LeeVerta Williams. She was preceded in death by her sister, Robin, brothers, Raymond, Dennis, and Keith Williams.

Binky received her education from Forest Elementary School and graduated from Decatur High School in 1975.

Binky’s work experience varied. She worked at Emory as a microchip processor at Quadrum, later known as Scientific Atlanta. Later she worked as a professional cleaner, she had her own private cleaning business.

Binky accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Lord and Savior at an early age. She was baptized by the late Dr. Martin Luther King, Sr. at Ebenezer Baptist Church. She always enjoyed sharing her childhood memories, in which Dr. King, Sr. would often stop by her aunt’s house off Barksdale for Sunday’s dinners. She always admired the King family and accepted them as an extension of her own. After worshipping at Ebenezer Baptist Church for many years, she later joined in Greater Friendship Missionary Baptist Church.

On Sunday, October 23, 2022, Binky gained her wings. Her memory, faithful courageous and vivacious spirit shall continue to live through those who loved and knew her. Binky's legacy will go forth through her children, Taurus J. Baker, Tamara Hight, Derrick Bailey, Taniesha Bailey, and Tiara Gaye. She also leaves to cherish her memory, grandchildren; Jibri Flood, Alyris Allen, Symphony Allen, J'Kardi Laguins, Mahogany Bailey, Kaylis Baker, Jayceon Bailey, Jacoby Bailey, Maci Bailey, and Nami Austin, sister, Tanya Parker (Randall) Chicago, Illinois, brother, Darren Williams, Chicago, Illinois, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins loving family and friends.
