“ Fitzroy Sylvester Johnson

I vividly remembered the year that he was born— 1965 in the village of Duhaney Pen within the parish of St. Thomas, Jamaica.

It was a bright and sunny day some time before noon at 66 Duhaney Pen Road. I'm not too sure if the district was numbered at the time.

I was a kid playing in the backyard when I heard my aunt Ruby, my grandaunt Irvine and my great grandmother Agnis talking about the baby coming.

My father, Wilfred Prince, gave Fitzgerald his name. He wanted to name him Fitzgerald after the late John Fitzgerald Kennedy. My aunt Ruby Prince wanted him to be named Sylvester, but they compromise and named him Fitzroy Sylvester Johnson.

Later Fitzroy, who we lovingly came to call “Fitzzy”, migrated to live with our cousin Merle Williams (“Aunt Merle”) in Kingston.

A few years later after my Aunt Ruby gave birth to Paulette Johnson, Maureen Johnson and Sharon Barclay, I migrated to the United States and occasionally visited Aunt Merle, Aunt Irvine and Fitzroy. These memories are left in the back of my head like it was yesterday.

Fitzzy, may the blessings of the Creator be with your soul to eternity.

*Love and peace,
Your cousin Carl Prince*
