“ Hi my beautiful sister Cathy,

Tomorrow will be three years since you went home to glory to be with "GOD"and the rest of your family.

I miss you so much, I miss our daily conversations, I know that you are happy were you are.

I often find myself trying to figure out what went wrong, why you had to leave us so soon.

But I know that"GOD" had plans for you, and those plans were justified by the holy spirit.

Cathy I hope that you know that I treasured you as my sister and will always love you.

Tell mommy and the others that I miss them also and I will hold on until we can all gather together again.

Love always

Your sister

“ Hey Ms. Cat! Your son just got in the bed which woke me up and I can't go back to sleep. Something just drew me to type your name in this World Wide Web just to see your face. Of course, it's your birthday! And What a celebration your kids would have thrown you! I smile at the thought of it. Let me tell you, your children are doing so well, they've all matured in ways that I can't even explain, all I can chop it up to is that they all have your spirit and force driving them toward success. It's been a sight to see. They all miss you so much. Your grand babies, everybody is now a whole year older than what they were when you transitioned. Seeing them grow reminds me that time is waiting for not one of us and to never take a day for granted. Today is your special day and I will make sure that we keep your memory alive and well.

*With all the love, we all miss you! Happy birthday
From your Daughter in law, Alicia.*

“ I never had the pleasure of meeting Cathy face to face, but through her son Mike, we agreed and laughed, and looked sideways at the nonsense :) on several occasions. I could never believe that she was the mother of these young adults because she looked like one of the sblings herself ! I will miss our funny exchange with each other, but I will miss her more for my friend. Sending my most sincere condolences to the Lemon family.
