“ Sister Crawford, may you rest in the perfect peace eternal that he promised all of us. I will forever remember, your active participation in our (scripture engagement) class. Your hungry and thirst for biblical knowledge was contagious to the rest of the class members. To the Crawford family may the Lord give you strength and Comfort in your time of bereavement.

“ Rest in peace, my beautiful friend. It's been nice knowing you, and having you as my best friend for 13 years since I moved to Georgia. I already miss you, our long conversations about our lives, and what is God doing in both of our lives. You were always passionate about sharing Christ to others. You definitely let your light shine. I'm hurting, but I am comforted knowing you're no longer suffering and you're now with our Lord and Savior. I know we will be reunited someday when God calls me home too.

Sending my deepest condolences to the family.

“ Catrice Crawford-Jackson was one of God's bright shining lights. She made me smile even in her suffering I never saw or felt nothing but peace with overflowing love. Her presence and participation in Beulah's Indwelling Spirit Class was a blessing to everyone in the class and especially me. At home or in the hospital she was caring and faithful in her love for the Lord. I will always cherish all conversations, communications, and the pictures you shared. Now rest from your labor in Christ Jesus my dear sister Catrice, for I'll definitely see you again...
