“ I have always enjoyed talking to Bay. I thank him for loaning me his daughters when they were so very cute and little to enjoy and go shopping with. I remember most how each girl had him wrapped around her finger. Especially when Cicely had him play Marvin Gay over and over when she was only 3. He looked so embarrassed. Lol!

Thanks Nelly, for letting me visit with him in the recent years when I would visit coming from the Stockbridge VA.

*See you on the other side Comrade in Arms.

“ To Sandra and Daisy, the sisters and to Nellie and the daughters, God's peace rest with you all. To Garcia, Aubrey and other nieces, nephews and relatives. Causby was a gentle man of integrity. He fought bravely for his country and was a rare person of genuine love for people. He IS STILL alive...for he knew Christ. We shall all commune when we cross over and see our savior. Mourn, rest, remember, cherish, love but most of all, be at peace.

“ Uncle Bay, I remember years ago when I was in college and you would come to pick me up from campus to take me to church and out to eat. We lost touch after that, but I was so elated when our families found our way to each other again. Spending time with you and the family during the summer was always filled my heart with such joy. You always stressed that we should put family first and I loved you for that. Loosing you has left a hole in our hearts, and you will be truly missed. Thank you for loving us unconditionally, and rest assured that we will continue to love each other unconditionally just as you would have wanted. You will forever be in our hearts. The Wilson family.

Uncle Bay,

A wonderful man you are! I have summer fun memories of you! The kids and I will come and hang with you and the family. Laugh all day and night. But one thing for sure..... Uncle Bay made everyone feel at home! Even when I would call you on the phone we would joke for half the conversation. You will be missed! It was you who gave me some great advise about parenting.... "Do your best and let it be" "B"
As I came to see you this evening , I said wow you look so at peace! So comfortable! Although I would have wanted another summer, laugh, dinner or huge all I can say is. You will be missed ! Have fun with Mrs. Inez my favorite girl! You guys can now talk about the current events on the Gates Av. block. Until next time.
You will be loved and missed!

“ *Uncle, my heart nearly stopped when I first got the word of your passing. You were a kind and gentle man who had a heart of gold and loved your family. I loved the way you cherished and adored me and my girls, you showed me the importance of family, and how important it is for the next generations of Mitchell's to know where they originate from. I only hope I can live up to your standards. Uncle you fought a long tough battle and now God has called you home. The time I spent with you meant world to me and you will never be forgotten.
