“ I had known Mr Pace for many years. He was my first supervisor when I worked at Fulton County. Such a fair and gentle man to everyone. He treated all of us as if we were all his family. After retirement a bunch of us would visit Mrs Velma and him at their lake side home and have a big picnic, with lots of fried chicken—Mr Pace favorite food. My thoughts and prayers to the family, he will be sorely missed by everyone. We loved you Mr Cecil and Mrs Velma.

One of the most level headed men I had the pleasure of meeting when I arrived at the Fulton Solicitor's Office.
