“ I am truly sorry for the loss of your loved one. During these difficult times, we can find comfort in the promises that God has laid out for us. We have the hope of seeing our loved ones again and never having to part from them. (Rom. 6:23) Sickness, pain and death will be gone forever. As we look forward to these promises being fulfilled, may the love shown to you by family and friends bring you comfort during this time. For more comforting scriptures, please visit www.jw.org.

“ I offer condolences and Scriptural comfort to the family and friends of Ms. Martinez. May you gain peace as you keep in mind..."God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1John 4:9). Jesus confirmed his role in raising up ones who fall asleep in death when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). Remember..."God's Word is truth." (John 17:17).

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Ms. Cecile Martinez. To lose a loved one in death is the most devastating event that can take place in our lives. The pain and anguish we feel never truly goes away. Our Heavenly Father is aware of what we are feeling and is here to offer us comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). He holds out wonderful promises concerning our departed loved ones at John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3,4. To know that there is a better future awaiting those we have lost in death, where the issues, such as sickness and death that plague mankind right now will be things of the past. I hope this can give you the strength to endure the difficult days ahead. Again, I am sorry for your loss.
