“ To the family of Ceola Lockley. Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that God works in mysterious ways or that God needed another angel, does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ Hi Sis, Thanks for giving me the many wonderful memories of you being a loving big sister to me. I think of the times we shared family dinners and much laughter. Please forgive me for crying so much when I heard you had left me. But my mind was quicken to know you are with Jesus and Ma Dear. C, I miss you so much but I am confident I will see you again in heaven. Love one of your brothers, Machel

“ Ceola, We thank God that He gave us that special time with you in March 2013 when you spent the night at our home. Those memories will never be forgotten. We have photos of that beautiful smile and joy we share that day with you. We miss you so much and it hurt real bad. It helps when the Holy Spirit reminds us that we will see you again. The Holy Spirit is our Comforter. Wow..you are face to face with Jesus, you are there. We love you so very much and miss you so very much. Your little sister...Bobbie and Brother Dee.
