“ My mother was one of the sweetest individuals one could ever meet. She, to me, is the definition of a strong person. She did everything that she possibly could to raise and support her five children alone. Although she was suffering internally, she never made it apparent and continued to support her family. She was also the BEST cook, and knew how to mix up ingredients that one would never have thought of. Although she is physically gone from Earth, I know that she is still here with my family and I in spirit. I am truly grateful to have her as a mother, and am extremely happy that she is not suffering anymore and is celebrating with God. May my beautiful mother rest in peace.
