

Chad Rusmiser

January 16, 1986 - December 2, 2013

Chad Rusmiser, 27, our beloved son and brother passed away at home with his family by his side December 2, 2013 after a courageous battle with cancer. Chad was born in Bay City, MI to the late Gary and Susan Rusmiser on January 16, 1986, where he resided most of his life. In 2008, Chad relocated to the Atlanta, GA area where he has resided ever since. Chad enjoyed fishing, playing poker, motorcycles, and spending time with his family. He will be sadly missed by friends, family and Kujo the family dog. We find comfort in knowing that Chad is now at peace in the reuniting with his father that he loved so dearly. Surviving are his mother Susan Rusmiser, brother, Scott (Carolson) Rusmiser, uncles, Jim, Bob, Steve, special nephew Grayson, and niece Bailee. He was predeceased in death by his father, Gary Rusmiser and grandparents, William Perkins and Maxine Hugo. Cremation has taken place and a private service will be held on Wednesday, December 11, 2013.

“ My Dear Son Chad, I will always remember your loving and wise words of wisdom during the last months of your life. Wise you sure were. I also will remember your sweetness as my baby. We often laugh of days gone by, of the silly, ridiculous funny ways you had in you! Many good memories of the person you were. Rest in peace and happiness with Dad. Always in my heart, forever and ever.... Mom

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death recently. I offer condolences and Scriptural encouragement to comfort you all. God made a loving provision to restore dead ones to life when he sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him. (1 John 4:9). Jesus expressed his role in this sure promise when he said: I am the resurrection and the life. Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. (John 11:25). God is faithful and always keeps his promises!
