“ To the Family of Mrs. Charlene Ferguson (George, Stu and Brother)
I just found about Char yesterday as me and my wife was planning a trip to Atlanta this summer. It's been 31 years since I seen her and you guys. I was her boss (Not really, she was our boss) at the Urban League of Metropolitan Denver, Denver, Colorado.

I know she is blessed and "Our" good angel and just waiting to see us again. Please know that I have good memories of her helping so many people and students going to college while at the Urban League.

She touched so many lives and gave me, Lance, Aziz etc a good foundation.

George, Stu, Brother thank you for sharing Char with us.

Char (RIP)! When me and my wife come to Altanta I will look you up
CONTACT ME SO I CAN SEND YOU SOME PICTURES OF CHAR
WHILE AT THE URBAN LEAGUE:

*George and family,
Please accept my sincere condolences to you during this time.*

I met charlene at Langston University and we've been in contact throughout the years. She was a very special friend who never met a stranger.

See you later my friend!
