“ I am so sorry to hear about your loss
From my own personal experiences what brought me comfort was finding out that God is the creator and source of life and therefore he is capable and promises to restore life to those that have passed away. He would never cause you pain by taking your loved ones away (psalms 36:9, Acts 17:25). God has resurrected humans in the past and yearns to do so in the future. He hates death and views it as the enemy and he will conquer the enemy and undo death by means of the resurrection. (1 corinthians 15:26, 1 Corinthians 15:56, Job 14:15, Acts 25:15) and Revelation 21:3,4) Because I have lost so many friends and family in death, learning the truth as to why we die and where my dead loved ones are what's in store for them in the future has brought me comfort. Giving me freedom from fear of death and has given me hope that I will be reunited with them. I sincerely hope this note brings you comfort. If you don't have a bible and would like to see God's promises yourself you can read these scriptures online at www.jw.org.

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Mr. Charles Anderson. To lose someone we love in death is an experience we can never truly be prepared for. The loss leaves a void in our lives that can never be filled. I truly hope in the days ahead beside the memories you have, that you will also gain comfort from the words of our Heavenly Father. He is aware of your pain and is here to comfort you (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). He also holds out wonderful promises concerning our deceased ones at John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3,4. To be assured by our Creator, Jehovah, that we will be able to see and welcome back our departed ones, such as Charles, can give you the needed strength to continue on. I pray that his words as well as the loving support of family and friends will sustain you during this difficult time.
