“ I had the honor of meeting Mr. Bobbit in 1969 while residing in New Haven, CT. Together, my late friend and colleague New Haven area Disc-Jockey Willie Wright, were hired by Mr. Bobbit as local show promoters for the late James Brown for many years, when he would perform in the New England area.

In 1976, Mr. Bobbit hired us as Personal Bodyguards to protect Minister Ali Ben Bongo, 19 year old son of late Gabon, West Africa's President Albert Bongo, for a two year period.

I am most grateful to Mr. Bobbit for his caring and unselfish spirit. He was surely a special friend and blessing to me over the years. Charles will surely be missed by all who knew and loved him. Our prayer is for the family to be strong at this hour of bereavement.
