“ Dear Charles, I met Charles when I say when I was a server at the lighthouse Inn in New London, Connecticut. He was so dapper and such a gentleman and when I found out that he was familiar with Waterberry and mentioned a woman named Sheila. I said my goodness could that be my friend Sheila. He said yeah her name is Sheila Hudley. Well come to find out Sheila's name is Sheila Hurdle and we all met at the casino. He had been dating Sheila what a small world I hadn't seen Sheila in like 20 years. We all met up at the casino. He loved the casino and he was such a fun loving person and a little grumpy sometimes but under that grumpiness, I'll tell you he was a lover. So dear Charles Sheila and I are thinking of you right now because she mentioned that she called you and you never called her back and she said that is not like Charles. So may you rest in peace we now know why you never returned Sheila's call we love you wrap those heavens and we will see you someday.

“ Unfortunately, I just found out about the passing of my Great Uncle Lynn. Uncle Lynn rest in peace. I knew something wasn't right when you never called me back because you ALWAYS call me back the same day or the next day. I met Uncle Lynn late in life after my mom, Ruby J. Cunningham passed away and a day before her funeral 09/19/2019 when I picked him up from the train station. Every since then it has been a blessing having him in my life. After my mom passed he kept in contact with me. We spoke often over the telephone for the last 5 years. And every time he came to the East Coast he would always let me know, so I can drive up to see him. Last time my son and I saw him we had dinner, great conversation and lots of laugh. Uncle Lynn was so kind to my son and I. He was the true definition of family. I thank him for opening his heart and arms to me and my son. I appreciate him for filling me in on the family history. Because of him I learn so much more about the Cunningham family. Last time I spoke with him he told me about his sister Mary's upcoming birthday in December of 2024. My hope is to meet my Great Aunt Mary, her children and grandchildren as well as I hope to meet all Uncle Lynn's children and grandchildren very soon. My deepest and sincerest condolence to the family. Again R.I.P Uncle Lynn. Love always, Thomasina Lloyd, daughter of Ruby J. Cunningham and granddaughter of John B. & Ethel Cunningham P.S. If any family members like to contact me please email me at lloydtho@yahoo.com. At that point we can exchange phone numbers. Stay Blessed family!
