“ We met Charles in 2008 when Dexter brought him to The Shay Spot. I knew he was a good guy right away and he kept coming even without Dexter. Soon after, Charles brought Justin by and we noticed how close the two of them were. He always spoke of his son & his activities. Justin played well with my children and was very mannerable. We'll miss Charles very much, especially around his birthday. Mema made sure she baked him a cake. To his family, I wish you well in coping with your loss and will keep you in my prayers.God Bless You,She'ree, Jordyn & Joshua BentonDonna (Mema) Turner & Roger Childs

“ To the Family: We offer sincere condolences and encouragement from the Scriptures. God has lovingly made provisions to restore our loved ones to life. (John 5:28,29). Jesus confirmed his role in that loving provision when he said....I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. (John 11:15). Keep in mind that God cares for you and he always keeps his promises! (John 3:16, Isaiah 55:11

“ Charles and I rode motorcycles together. If you did not know him, he'd seem to be a very quiet person, but with me he was very comical, always making me laugh. He always spoke about his mother that she is a very smart woman, his sister as HIS baby sister and he was so proud of his son trying to spend as much time as he could with him. He will be greatly missed!

“ My family was so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one, Mr. Gaither. Words can not take away the pain, but hopefully knowing that others are thinking of you during this time can provide a source of strength. We pray that you will be comforted by the promises our Heavenly Father has provided for us at John 5:28, 29 & Revelation 21:3, 4. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I knew of Mr. Charles Gaither as an associate at Bank of America Southside Operations. He was a friendly person and always had a smile on his face. I want the family to know that God is able and that God is a very present help in time of trouble. I am praying for you.

“ Mr. Gaither was a great father to Justin. When Justin was in my prekindergarten class, you could depend on his dad to attend field trips and just to be there whenever he was needed for his son. Though you will be sorely missed, the memories that you have left your loved ones with, will last forever. The Jones Family
