“ To my buddy, my friend
You renewed your life with the Lord
You walked with him boldly. I will miss our conversation , our monthly check in and the famous hang up saying "Merry Christmas from the Temptations" love you !! That was said at the end of every call.

One thing about my friend is he kept a mean mug on his face. But he was sweet humble person with a big heart of Love ❤️

Rest Easy my love, see you later

Love Always,

“ Psalm 30:5 reads, "Weeping may endure for a night but joy cometh in morning." May the memories (the joy) shared with Charles comfort each of you in the coming days.

“ With a heavy heart to honor the life of Charles Hinton, a man whose presence brought warmth, faith, and unwavering devotion to all who knew him.

Charles was a shining example of what it means to live a life rooted in spirituality. His faith was not only something he spoke about it was something he lived every single day. His dedication to the Reel to Real Bible Study and prayer line was truly inspiring. Day after day, he showed up with a willing heart, a listening ear, and a spirit ready to encourage others. His consistency and faithfulness reflected a deep love for God.

Charles had a way of making people feel seen, heard, and uplifted. Whether through prayer, conversation, singing, or simply his presence, he poured light into the lives of so many. His spiritual strength and gentle kindness will continue to echo in my hearts and everyone he touched.

I offer my most sincere and heartfelt condolences to his family and loved ones. There are no words that can fully ease the pain of such a loss, but I pray you find comfort in knowing how deeply Charles was loved and how powerfully he lived his faith.

Charles, I love you, and you will be truly missed. Your legacy of faith, dedication, and love will never be forgotten.
