“ I truly wish there was more acknowledgment of your sacrifice on this day. But, while the world is focused on one, God is focused on both. You are a hero, we are proud of you, but God is most proud.

“Coach Chuck was my son’s coach. Family who would attend games would comment, “you never see a coach as great as he is,” and “you’re blessed to have someone like him as a coach.” I’m so thankful that we had time with Coach. As we process this and grieve, we are holding on to his nuggets of advice, his encouraging words, his humorous statements, and his love for his family and our boys. Thank you, Lynn, Bryce, Branden and Braylen for sharing him with us, as we all are better having had him in our lives.

“I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family of Charles E. Johnson, II, the son of Charles and Wilma Ann Johnson upon hearing of his recent death. I last saw him and his siblings when Wilma Ann came through Memphis.

I understand that he died helping to save the lives of others.

I hope that this fact provides you all at least some solace at this sad time.

“Chuckie was my cousin by marriage. I met him when he was a young man. To me, he was a very nice person. Condolences to his family.

What do you say in a time as this? But, I do know that God doesn't make mistakes and He KNOWS just How much we can bear. Sis. Lynn, you, your young men, Bro. & Sis. Thurmond, & your entire family, are forever in our PRAYERS.

My wife Karen and I moved in next door to the Johnson's in 2018. Little did we know that we would soon meet the best neighbors we had ever known. Lynn and Karen developed a friendship during their long talks on our shared driveway. Chuck and I soon discovered our mutual love for reggae music as we grilled and worked in our garages and discovered that Chuck and Karen both graduated from Redan HS, albeit he graduated 4 years later with Karen's brother. We shared our love of all things Falcons and Chuck, the boys, and my obsession for fireworks. The Johnson's are a special family; you can see their love and dedication to one another. Chuck & Lynn have created a legacy of faith & love that Bryce, Branden, and Braylen can build on forever. Chuck you will be missed my friend, until we all meet again soon.
