“ To the Martin family we offer our deepest condolences. On behalf of the Anderson family, I ask that God continues to strengthen us all during this grieving process. We loved "Pharaoh"/CJ, like family. My late parents thought of him as a son and to my late sister Inga and nephew, he was a dear friend and God-father. To my sister, brother and I he was a brother, not just a friend from high school. Whenever we called, he was there. Seeing each other over the years, was like a family reunion. We shared so many good times and even tragedies. But through it all, we found strength in each other as he made us laugh. We find comfort in God's word, (Matt. 25:21) "His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant". He gave all he had to so many of us without asking for anything in return. He will truly be missed by all who knew him. We will honor him by loving and caring for one another and others. When we feel overwhelmed, trust in God and stand on His word, (1 Pet. 5:7) "Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you". RIH-until we meet again.

“ First, my condolences to the families. It has finally sunk in that my brother “by another mother”and friend has passed away. I met Charles in April 1994 at The Metro State Prison and we have been a part of each other’s lives since then. I will miss the laughs and advise, but most of all I will miss your presence. Rest In Peace.

Prayers to all friends and family. I just want to say thank you Charles for your guidance and the knowledge you shared with me so that I could be successful in the Department Of Corrections. From day one of me meeting you, I knew I would be just fine. I will not say goodbye but I will see you later one day.. You are truly a great friend I was blessed to have known. RIH my friend, Love Wink

Our sincere prayers and condolences go out the the entire Martin family. From the early 1970's on Lena Street the Harvey family met the Martin family and we have been connected every since. "Pharaoh" showed himself to be a man of deep love and character. When my Mother Jimmie Lee Harvey passed in September of 2009 He was right there with his show of support and love lifting us up. I love each one of you and pray that God will comfort your hearts as you go through the transition of such a precious soul. Tricia, Red, Phyllis Patrick
We Love you all,
