“ Our very last encounter was a few weeks ago at Ingles, you were there getting some breakfast..... boy did we talk about everything and he was catching up on how everyone was doing... we then departed to meet up a few minutes later at the Goodwill across the street. We continued our conversation but this time it was about life and the impact it has or had on our lives as individuals. To sum it up we agreed that life swiftly passes by and its up to us to make the best of it. We agreed that simplifying our lifestyles and loving people genuinely is all that matters. I'm truly gonna miss our meet ups at the grocery store and the conversations, rest well cousin; forever in my heart! Alice Malcom

“ My condolences to the family, I called him Mr. C., he was one of my favorite customers at Ingles for right at 9 years when I was there, one of the sweetest man you could ever meet I knew what he wanted to eat so I would fix it and give it to him when I see him coming in a medium bowl of plain grit. I am going to miss him so much, when I heard of his passing it hit me hard. I will miss you Mr. C
