He also was an entrepreneur while working for corporate America. He followed the fine example set by his father by having his own businesses, Charles had several businesses at one time. His most gratifying and

Charles touched the lives of so many with his profound sense of humor, warmth, creativity, a people person, his personality was full of life although he was short in stature, he was a giant in every aspect of his life.

His friendships were so diverse, he traveled the entire US, the Caribbean Islands and internationally through the years to Kenya, Peru, Brazil, Panama, Mexico, Paris, London just to name a few.

Charles was generous to family, friends' acquaintances and possessed the ability to connect to just about anyone he met. His network of friends was larger than life. He was known as the "mayor" he had over 1,100 contacts in his personal phone.

He had a brilliant mind, he loved reading, his library was full, he was quick witted, gift to gab. He had a rare gift of building community wherever he found himself.

He became so health conscious that he decided to have a vegetable and fruit garden to ensure he was eating healthily. He and his good friend Phil had an informative Podcast that talked about health, food, finance, owning property and harvesting your own food. He was working on having a farm. Please check out their Podcast on YouTube Phil and Amir Wake Up.

He had so many natural talents, gifts to gab, outstanding athlete, loved to dance, love of house music and jazz.

He was a sports enthusiast Basketball, Football, Baseball, Tennis, Boxing, Track and Field. Every Sunday, during Football season he would meet up with the fellas at Dave and Busters to watch the games and talk junk. His son Yasir also loves sports.

He passed away suddenly on September 14, 2025, after having a awesome day doing what he loved best conversing with customers giving advice about health and wellness at the International Night Market of downtown Lawrenceville, GA festival.

His memory will live on with all of the nuggets he would share, here's one of his favorite quotes "This is the Best day of my life" when someone would ask, how you doing?

We all look forward to, the day we all will be reunited in perfect health and happiness.

And on that note, we are sent him off with his theme music Love is the Message by MFSB

I had the pleasure of attending high school with Chucky in Morristown (Motown as it was known). His cousins Jalal and Ameen were like my brothers and the family always treated me like family . He will be greatly missed and always remembered for being a great friend. May God cherish him and continue to bless his family. Farewell old friend.
