“ *Shenandra
James and I extend our heartfelt sympathy to you and family. We were deeply saddened to hear the news.
He was quite a nice guy.
I have great memories of our softball days together.
Trust in the Lord. He will comfort you and take you through the tough days ahead.

“ Charles, as I affectionately called you "Chookie." I knew you tried to get away from that name, but you always allowed me to call you that and would laugh it off. You were different and in all of the best ways. As a youth growing up at Wesley, I watched how you always had so much poise and confidence when overseeing the finances of the church. You KNEW what you were doing and what you were talking about. Finance was not my strong suit, but business would later become my major and you were all about that. Dearest and Sweet Shenandra, I'm soooo very sorry for this great loss and there are simply no words. I wish I could be there tomorrow to honor "Chookie's" life. His impact and presence on this earth will always be remembered. Love to you and the family.

“ Charles and I have been friends for over 60 years. We started 1st grade together and enjoyed being in band together through high school. He has always been someone of outstanding character.

Although we both went to different colleges, we later strengthened that lifetime of friendship by becoming brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha.

Shanandra, please know that we will continue to lift you up in prayer, while keeping our memories of Charles dear.

“ I met Charles and Shenandra in the mid-80's when my husband and I, and the Price's were young homeowners in Brook Glen Subdivision, Decatur, GA.

We shared lots of laughter and conversations at the neighborhood celebratory functions.

I was saddened to have received the news of Charles death, and Bobby and I would like to extend our sincerest condolences to the family. Always keep your fondest memories of him close to your heart ❤️.

God Bless,

Bobby and Deborah Hayes

“ For nearly 50 years, Charles A. Price stood as a pillar of strength, focus, and determination, always striving to be the best and encouraging those around him to do the same. Charles was not just my Alpha line brother; he was a true example of how life should be lived—surrounded by family, friends, and an unwavering sense of purpose.

From the moment we were blessed to become members of Zeta Mu , Charles showed his commitment to having our backs and holding us all to a higher standard. His presence, his wisdom, and his drive will be profoundly missed, but his legacy will continue to inspire all who knew him.

Our heartfelt condolences go out to his family and all who had the privilege of knowing Charles. May his memory be a source of comfort and strength during this difficult time.
