“ Dear Scott Family: Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. May the love and support of family and friends comfort you greatly during this difficult time. The Bible also gives us comfort and hope to see our loved ones again right here on earth by means of the resurrection. “There will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous “ May you have peace as you think about this beautiful hope for the future.

“ Mrs. Scott and family, As I sit typing words of condolences with tears in my eyes realizing that Mr. Scott has not departed us in death, but has transitioned to a higher energy that is more rewarding than earth can ever reward. My Mother as well as the rest of the family knows that a treasured family member may not grace us physically anymore but his spirit is permanently embodied in all of us. Mrs. Scott one thing I have learned in the departure of a love one is that there is no blueprint to grieving and we should always be prayerful, mindful and supportive of one another to carry us from day to day and as we give God the glory for understanding that his earthly contract calls for a time to be born and a time to die and the eternal reward is everlasting life in which our loving and dear Mr. Charles Scott can enjoy. May God bless the family.

“ Mr. Scott was my favorite Omega Man. I have known him since I was 16 years old and began dating his oldest son. In all of our interactions, Mr. Scott was kind, genuine, and loving towards me. He always insisted on Charles' best treatment of me and modeled what it meant to be a provider, husband, father, and friend. I will always appreciate our conversations and maintain the utmost respect for you. Rest well good and faithful servant. You have fought a good fight. Charles, Cedric, and Mrs. Scott, you are all in my heart and prayers. May God wrap you all in his loving arms and give you peace and understanding in the days ahead. I still love you all...Nikki Grier
