“ To the family of Charles Shy:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I miss you so daddy. I still can't believe you are not here with us. I was so happy to have you back in my life after so many years of no contact. I never knew our time would be cut short, but the time I did have with you is priceless. I will never forget the times you would make me listen to the Braves play on AM radio station in the car and how I was so bored and complain. I miss sitting in your lap as a little girl watching sports and going fishing with you. I miss those silly little names you use to call me. You are up in Heaven with my sister's mom, my mom, my sister's son Luther Jr., and my daughter Cassidy. Kiss them for me.
Love your little angel,
Kalida Danner.

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings much grief and sadness, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God's word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. Taking in true knowledge of the true God and his son Jesus assures us eternal life. (John 17:3)

“ May "the God of all comfort" give you all peace as you look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." ~John 5:28,29. When a loved one falls asleep in death, God's loving resurrection promises ease our sorrow because we know that God is faithful and always keeps his word! He himself promises: "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up." ~Isaiah 26:19. Jesus confirms his role in the resurrection when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25
