“ I just read about Charles’ passing and thus I missed his funeral. SO sorry! Condolences to his wife. I worked with Charles years ago when I transferred to Fulton County. He showed me several areas I need to know about. Little did I know the pairing of a white woman and a black man (although we were LE Rangers) received some negative attention. We heard later that some guy had his shotgun ready in case we came back by his house. I guess times haven’t changed much over the years. Anyway, Charles was a great mentor for me as I learned a new area. When we worked at the Aquatic Center during the ‘96 Olympics, he knew that July 1 was my DNR 20th year anniversary date for being hired. I was surprised he remembered that. RIP, Charles! You were someone I am grateful to have known and worked with.

“ I always enjoyed working with Charles. He was an outstanding officer. He had a great ability to communicate with people and put them at ease. Once, while assigned to “Riot Squad” duty, we were positioned next to each other directly in front of the speaker at a Klan rally in Monroe, Ga. I was amazed at his tolerance for that hate filled rhetoric. He leaned to me and pointed out the ridiculous side of what was being said. This started us both laughing. At that point our Unit Leader tapped us on our shoulders and, not too politely, told us to shut the heck up. Charles was a good man and a good friend. I know he was welcomed into Heaven by the open arms of God.
