“ My husband was everything to me. He was a great man in many way. He was a survivor and had strength and courage of a king. He was a man of few words and great action. He was patient but yet anxious. He loved but yet chastised with hate. He loved his kids young & old. He loves me. He was a provider & a doer even when he was sick. He was a go getter and never waited on anyone. He was wise & a man of great wisdom. He is truly missed. I will forever carry him in my heart. He was a man that explores the world & seen many things & done many things. He was my vest friend lover and greatest critic. He worked hard played hard and fought hard. Charles I loved our time together I honor you for everything you set in place for us. Never gone just not present in this life but you live in the life here after waiting and honoring God. Love always your wife and best friend Sybreana
