“ I haven't seen Charles since our 50 year class reunion for East High in 2016. I remember him as always laughing, smiling or having a funny story to tell. He was well-known and admired by many and will be greatly missed. My sincere condolences to the family.

“ Marilyn, Kelly, Charles and Family,
We are so very sorry for your loss!
I can still hear him calling me and saying what's up Buddy Ro! That's the name of the golf club we started together. I was the first person he played golf with when he moved to Georgia!
His love of golf, family, friends and good times will be missed.
He had a friendly personality and never met a stranger! He could carry on a conversation with anyone, anywhere, anytime! Charles was determined to persevere and enjoy life even through all of his health challenges!
Charles would always update me on his family with pride in his voice. He loved you all very much!
We pray that God's peace that passes all understanding will surround you all during this time! May your happy memories of Charles give you peace.
Take care!
Sincerely,
Mel and Mary Allen

Charles was a dear friend of my brother and always at our house. Charles was always funny and kind. I was a pesty little girl always getting in the way but Charles was like a big brother to me. Marilyn like another big sister. Charles knew my husband loves pecans and brought them all the way to a wedding we all attended. We are praying for strength for Marny, her sons, and all the family. Charles will be missed but not forgotten💜
Sincerely and with Our Love,

“Marilyn, my thoughts and prayers are with you and the family. Jeanette and I have been friends since kindergarten or Sunday school (I'm not sure which came first). It seems like a day did not go by without Jeannette visiting me at my house or me visiting her at your family home on Cottage. I ate with Jeannette at your house; Jeannette ate at mine. So, I feel like Jeannette and I share you as a sister; and your entire family is my family. Many years ago, during one of my many visits to the Cottage Street home, I met Charles. He was there to see you and, of course, to get some of Grannie's delicious Danish. Granny was more than happy to oblige. As I recall, he was her favorite. I'm not surprised... one could not have met a more kind and considerate person. To my godson, William Jr., you are so blessed to have been able to spend so much quality time with him. May those memories remain with you always. Peace and love to you all. Bettie Moore

“ From Waterloo, Iowa to Stone Mountain, Georgia; Charles was always the bright light in any dark situation. Giles and I named him the Mayor because he always kept track of his home folks and would share what was going on with them...it was all good. He was Mr. Positive. He loved his family and was very proud of them. His bragging rights, however, went to his "Claim to Fame... baseball". According to him and Tim Moore, they were both pretty darn good! Obviously, he played baseball better than The Game of Scattergories.

Giles and I are so grateful that we did not waste the opportunity to tell Charles that we loved him the day before he passed. He was always there for us and he will be sorely missed.

Our deepest heartfelt sympathy to Marilyn and family. The hardest part of loving someone is saying good-bye. May the memories you have help heal your heart.

Keeping you in our prayers,
Giles & Mary Alice Wright

“ Uncle Charles you loved big, ate good, cooked good, and dressed sharp. You always kept us engaged as kids and young adults. Video taping, taking us to play ball, golf, eat, sharing memories and stories that would always make us laugh. I use to love summers in Atlanta cause you made them great. I remember and thank you for one on one time we had together when I use to give you haircut's in the garage. You made me a better barber and person. We will cherish the memories and we all love you dearly. Heaven is a better place with you in it❤️

“ Brother-in-law thank you for being the person that you were. You taught me a lot of things and showed me even more, like the correct way to play golf, how to swing the club and keep your eye on the ball! Also how to be a good host and show good hospitality. The things we shared about life will always be close to my heart. The way that you loved your family and provided for them was up and beyond recognition. There were good days and bad days but you had more good days than bad. You left me with a ton of memories that I will always cherish. Looking forward to our golf rematch in heaven. Until then Rest In Peace my brother nothing but love always Carl.

“ My brother-in-law! There are so many good memories with him being in our life for over 50+ years. We used to all pile in his yellow Lincoln and go everywhere. In town and out. He was a great uncle to the kids and loved being involved in their life. He taught me how to grow a garden and would give me a hard time when I let the corn stay on too long. What a man. He never hesitated to fuss at you but you knew deep down he cared. We will miss you Charles Willie with love always Jeannette

“ I met Charles over 60 years ago. I was 10 and he was 12 or 13. We lived next door to the Normans. He and Georald were buddies. His future wife Marilyn lived on the other side of us. We played a pickup football that day and we played hard and hit hard. He was a very good athlete. We were classmates at UNI and friends for life. I talked to him 5 days before he passed. We talked about how much we missed his cousin Tracy. He now had no one to argue with. They are together now and can argue through the ages. We all loved each other and I miss both of them. Rest in peace my friend.

Marilyn, I met Charles over 20 years ago with my ex Tyrone. He would come to visit after or before a game. I will always remember his laughter and his awesome personality. I also will remember his statement after golf when the game wasn't as good as he thought it should have been "I figured it out" I will always remember the party I attended with you and Charles when he did the bunny hop. Some of you reading this will remember that party. Boy did Charles LOVE his family. He talked about his kids and grandchildren all the time. He was always going to games to cheer them on and let them know his love. But more than anything did he love his wife. He will be missed and remembered for his charm and class. I am sorry that he did not remember me, I don't know what happened and I never will now but I will always remember him. With deepest condolences. Tanya
