Charlie was "family" to me. We were neighbors who grew up together in the Racetrack/ Legion Road community in McDonough. My father & mother were very happy that I became friends with his sisters - Dorothy and Gwen. They rarely let me go out with anyone other than them and my cousin, Sue - the "good girls" :-)). Charlie had an awesome grin and good humor - always found a way to make you smile ... and he "loved to dress" and make a joyful noise in the H.C.T.S. band! My sincere condolences to his brother, John (my classmate),; my dear friend, Dorothy, and sisters: Althea, Karen, Angela, Betty, and brother, Hiram.
May the love of God comfort and cover you in His perfect peace ... as we trust that Charlie is resting in a heavenly place called "home" 🙏🥲 💖 -- Love you, Bernette
