“ Sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one; May the memories of a life well-lived help you during this difficult time. And may the strength that God gives sustain you in the days ahead.
(Psalm 46:1)

“ We share in your hurt and sorrow. What an awesome woman she was, and left behind her awesome children, Grands and more. I will never forget the support and care she gave us , and most of all the times she came to see and eat what PaPa had cooked. We love you all more than words can say. May God continue to bless and strengthen the family.

“ My condolences to the family of Mrs. Saboor. The sting of death hurts us so much that we may feel as though our strength to cope disappears. Our heavenly father, Jehovah is always there to comfort us during this difficult time. The psalmist at Psalm 94:19 found this to be true in his case and can be yours as well. Its says: " When anxieties overwhelmed me. You comforted and soothed me". And the promise at Jeremiah 31:13b "I will change their mourning into exultation. I will comfort them and give them joy instead of their grief." May these scriptures comfort you at this time of bereavement.

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I extend condolences to you all. Keep in mind; God empowered Jesus to resurrect dead ones when he was on the earth, giving us evidence of what he will do in the future. Jesus assures us..."I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25. God always keeps his promises! ~Isaiah 55:11
