“ Alfred and family,

I know you will miss your loved one. As a former EAL employee, memories of Charlotte will not be forgotten and the laughter she often shared. Many pursued other dreams and other industries, but the love and fond memories shall never die. I pray that the Lord our God will wipe away the tears of family and friends and bring joy one glad morning.

Just know that whether we live therefore, or die we are the Lords.

Rom 14:8

Rejoice in knowing that any pain and sorrow are passed away. For the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom 6:23

“ Mine are words of thanksgiving to our Sovereign GOD for blessing my life with my school mate and my aunt, Charlotte. Ours was not a relationship of aunt and nephew. Ours was a relationship of being family and friend. Charlotte was for me another connector to my mother, my family and our shared history. As sure as the sadness of losing a loved one gives rise to a selfish sense of wanting the person alive and well with us, God's GREATER GIFT is that my beautiful beloved Charlotte by God's Mercy has been released from the bonds of illness in this life. I am in solidarity with family and friends who have loved her in celebrating her former presence in our lives that blessed us. Surely those of us who have loved her CELEBRATE the transition to ETERNAL LIFE God has called her home to. Rest in God, Beautiful, rest in God.
