“ My deepest, most sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Knolton. Death is not natural and because of this, it can be hard to deal with the loss of our dear loved ones. Please draw close to Jehovah God at this difficult period of mourning as he is the only source of comfort, James 4:8 'Draw close to God, and he will draw close to you.'

“ You and your family members have my deepest sympathy for your loss. Please know that our heavenly father, Jehovah brings comfort to all who have fallen asleep in death with the hope of the resurrection. And how we look forward to the day when the last enemy, death, “is to be brought to nothing”! (1 Corinthians 15:26) Confidence in Jehovah’s resurrection promise brings us comfort and a sure hope for the future.

“ I would like to take this time out to express my sympathy for the Knolton family. I know that this is a sad time for the family because death is a hard situation to deal with. The Bible states at Isaiah 26:19, "Your dead will live. My corpse will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, you residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, and the earth will let those powerless in death come to life." This is a promise. For more information go to JW.Org.

“ Although I didn't know him personally, I would like to offer my condolences to the family. Loosing someone we love is one of the hardest things we will deal with in life. However, many have found comfort by looking into Gods word the Bible. The Bible assures us of a time in the near future when Gods Kingdom mentioned at Matthew 6:10 will rule over mankind. (Daniel 2:44) Under that Kingdom "no resident will say I am sick". (Isaiah 33:24) There will be no more death. (Revelation 21:3,4) The loved ones we lost in death will be resurrected. (John 5:28,29, Acts 24:15) We will live forever here on earth in the abundance of peace.(Psalms 37:11) May our Heavenly Father Jehovah,(Psalms 83:18) the God of peace grant you the mental peace and comfort needed at this difficult time. Meditate on Gods word the Bible ,and draw close to our Heavenly Father. (James 4:8) May you be comforted by family and friends,and your loving memories until these promises are fulfilled.

“ I am so sorry for your great loss. May the God who is 'comforting those mourning, and binding the brokenhearted' in your time of distress, may these words soothe not only your hearts, but your minds, your emotions, and both your physical and spiritual health for “God is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit”
(Ps. 34:18).

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Mr. Chato D Knolton. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. We can find comfort and hope in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ I offer sincere condolences and Scriptural comfort to the family and friends of Mr. Knolton. God's Word assures us: "The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29). Jesus confirmed his role in this loving provision when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). Keep in mind...God is faithful and always keeps his promises! Consider Revelation 21:3-5)
