

Cheron Boyd

January 23, 1982 - July 4, 2020

Cheron walked through life with each passing day continuously grateful for his family and friends. Motivated to see, experience and touch all that he could, Cheron would be known as a man of God, husband, father, artist, clothing designer and author– to name a few.

Cheron had a passion to see the world and all that it had to offer, traveling to many countries such as Greece, Italy, France, China and more. He also loved cars, high fashion and entrepreneurship, which was evident by his style and vast business ideas. Though his hobbies were many, they tell just one side of who he truly was. Cheron was also determined and never started something he did not finish. This was evident through his passion for Accounting, which he contributed to for over 10 years and worked diligently to earn a degree in – in only 2.5 years from Oglethorpe University. This then led him to continue his journey of professional development and success with Cousins Properties – a company he genuinely loved and enjoyed contributing to as a Senior Property Accountant.

His determination and visionary mindset would also spark him to create his Christian inspired clothing line Maison de Dieu in 2018, which made its runway debut during New York’s Fashion Week that same year. But as a man of many talents, Cheron also added author to his list of trailblazing activities with his first book The Rites of Resistance in 2019.

But while Cheron achieved much in his lifetime, his greatest fulfillment was marrying the love of his life, Amen Boyd on Valentine's Day of 2015 in Atlanta, GA after 4.5 years of dating. Amen and Cheron loved one another unconditionally and continued to grow together in their walk with Christ, counseling couples through their ministry My Outcry, Inc. and Victory Church – to share their testimony and love of God. Through their love, they also welcomed two handsome sons Adamosa and Akao. Cheron's greatest joys in his life would be his role as a father, a role he never took for granted. Though life took Cheron through many battles it was the love of his wife and children that gave him the strength to survive until the very end.

Cheron's life may seem too short to many, but those he touched understand that his quality of existence far exceeds the quantity of time he lived on this earth. His smile and playful personality brought so much joy to his family, friends and colleagues. Cheron would like you to know that his work here is done. He has received a call, a sort of offer he could not refuse, for an appointment he was honored to accept. His assignment comes with a huge sign-on bonus, a reunion with family he has not seen in a long time and most of all – healing. We will remember his smile, his warmth, his energy, his love for life, and his love for God. He worked very hard all his life and continued to defy the odds, up until the very end. He made a difference in the lives of many and we invite you to join us as we celebrate the impactful and full life he lived.

Mr. Cheron Boyd of Tucker, GA passed on July 4, 2020. His services entrusted to Gregory B. Levett and Sons Funeral Home, Gwinnett Chapel (770-338-5558)

“ Cheron and I were high school friends at Green Run. We were in fashion together. He was working on a pair of jeans and I a denim skirt. We sang and joked all during class and all in the hallways. He was always smiling and I would pick with him about keeping his tags on his expensive jeans. He was a kind soul. I was truly blessed to call him my friend. RIP FRIEND

“ Sharing my special special memories of Cheron... A versatile & well diversified individual...when they visited me, during a family Thanksgiving Dinner,as we were approaching the table so we can sit & eat, he said jokingly, “I hope you have Goat Pepper Soup”. I was so shocked, not having the slightest idea, he even knew what that was. We had laughs over it & it came up in conversations from time to time.Another time, during their Traditional Marriage, he showed so much love for the African Culture & Tradition, to where he made one felt the need to treasure the whole Ceremony; he was so passionate about it, to the extent that he requested for an African name, which he would assume all through the Ceremony. The name given to him was Osazuwa, he loved it & answered it with pride. Let’s not forget the beautiful smile. Cheron was very family oriented & I learnt more special things about him, the past few days, while browsing through a book he authored.., Beautifully done. From the first day, we were introduced, he never stopped saying Aunty; he was respectful & fun to be around. As recent as a few days ago, I couldn’t help, but come to reality because he would always asked, “aunty, are you ok”? Just making sure I feel at home. Only, this time, he was not there to ask me.Truly, the few years of knowing him, will be cherished. I know you are resting in the bosom of the Lord.. Please be our heavenly angel & watch over my baby Amen & the beautiful boys you left behind. I know that you are in a better place, free of stress & pain. May Your Beautiful Soul Continue To Rest In Perfect Peace...Cheron "Osazuwa"Boyd 🙏 With Sweet Memories, Lady Rachel Penosen 🙏

“ When Ron and Amen purchase their first home they flew me out to help them decorate it. I was so excited! They welcome me into their home with open arms, huge smiles and so much love. I remember thinking how involved Ron was with everything Amen was interested in do and vise versa. They took me site seeing around the city and had a great time shopping for different pieces for their home all while fellowshipping. While I was down there, one thing that stuck out to me was how they displayed their love for God and how much God was part of their EVERY decision, EVERY movement, everything that they did individually and most importantly TOGETHER. It was so loud and clear. You couldn't ignore it. Here I was thinking I was flying out there to HELP them style their home but in turn God used them to changed the way I communicated with God in all my relationships. It was so impactful for me. I never got the chance to thank you Ron while you were still here. I hope you know how much I am grateful to have known you. You lived your life in these short years to the FULLEST. I mean what didn't you not do? We can argue you still have sooooo much more to do in this world, but thank you for showing us how to do so. I love you! Xo Iris

“ The very first time I met Ron he had this wonderful, welcoming, genuine smile and I felt the love and appreciation. Then he gave me a hug which felt like a family member I have not seen for a very long time.

I am grateful for knowing him, he was very respectful, gracious, just an exceptionally caring young man.

He embraced the Edo culture and traditions with pride, dignity, gratitude and genuine happiness as a child who left his home and came back years later.

He filled all our hearts love and joy, we will always remember him with great pride.

Amen, Adamosa, Akao and family please accept our sincere sympathy.

From my family, the Edo community.

*Love Always,
Auntie Queen*

“ Ron will be missed at Cousins! He was so kind and his soul was pure. He never complained about anything. I would always ask if he was ok. Did he eat etc? He would always smile and say he was fine. My prayers are with his beautiful wife, two boys, family and all those that loved him dearly. As the scripture says, to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Ron, thank you so much for stopping by Cousins for just a little while. Rest in Power..

“ Ron and I worked together at Cousins Properties. Every time I saw him, I'd think how amazing it was that he was always so upbeat given the trials he'd endured. Then we'd share stories about our families, and I knew exactly what it was that gave him such an amazing outlook - his family. I remember leaving the office one afternoon at the same time as Ron. We waited and waited for an elevator, and it never came, so we had to walk down 18 flights of stairs. I looked at Ron and worried it'd be too much as I knew he was unwell. But that man skipped down those 18 flights like he was teenager, not complaining once. I hope he realizes the impact he had on all of us. Ron inspired so many of us to live life gratefully and genuinely.

I remember Ron as a very young man when he was singing in the choir of Morning Star Baptist Church and attending Green Run High School, he knew then fashion and an artistic mind was his calling. He had to become a wonderful man and father because of his relationship with his Heavenly Father and earthly mother. Fought a good fight Well Done.
