“ Cheryl was a special friend to me at times when I was going through different trials at the job. Sneaking off to her room would be such a positive experience , up lifting she made me feel so special at all times her voice the way she Spoke my name, her smile. She and I Laughed about all my troubles . So sorry that the 28 of May was our last laugh I love you and may the lord Hold you in his wings no more suffering I never knew you were suffering you never complained not about sickness and stuff anyway, Tell your grandma I miss her smile , tell Kenya I got her when I get to Heaven . Rest easy my friend . I forgot Cheryl , you said I would Happy belated birthday love always Kim Greene
