

Christ (Chris) Kasseen Swan

December 23, 1956 - January 9, 2014

Christ Kasseen Swan (Chris) was born on December 23, 1956 in Fulton County, Georgia to James and Rosemary Swan. He had one sister, Estella, who predeceased him. Chris attended St Joseph High in Atlanta, Georgia. He served as the president of the chess club and was a member of the football, basketball, and tennis teams. After high school, Chris attended Devry Institute of Technology and earned an applied science and technology degree in Electronics. He then worked with the Dekalb County Fire Department as a firefighter / EMT. He also worked as a process technician at IBM before joining the Lockheed Martin Aeronautics Company where he was employed as a firefighter at the time of his death. Chris was known for his random acts of kindness. He strongly believed that charity began at home and was committed to many causes. Chris loved being a fire fighter and cherished the bond that he had with his "brothers" at Lockheed. He especially liked that his job provided him the opportunity to help others and to serve his community. Most of all, Chris loved his family. His wife Faith, his sons, Dante and Christian and his step children, Alexander and Ashley. He was a, loving husband and devoted father and a loyal friend. He may be gone but will never be forgotten. May his soul rest in eternal peace,

Tribute Wall

CF

“ I will always remember that very happy smile that was signature for Chris. He had the biggest smile that was so warm and genuine. R.I.P. Chris. You will forever be etched in my memory.

Cherise Francis - February 02, 2014 at 12:00 AM