“ David empled all of Nature to mourn at the passing of his friend, and King. Know that all you're closest family and friends are "all- in" to help you and you're children start to heal. You don't have to walk this out alone. So, let the trees bend their bows, let the flowers lower their faces, for today.
But, because we anticipate the comfort of God, for a better tomorrow; a tear shall mark this day, but, a memory of Love shall christen it forever. May God keep you! -- Min Phillip

“ To Reggie and the family:
I pray God will continue to comfort and protect you all during this time. God said in His Word He will never leave you nor forsake you. Yes this is a Great loss for the Family but I want to encourage you knowing that your Voices of Faith Family is always here for you all. I personally is at your beckon call.
Sincerely,

“ Our condolences to the Croslan and Trotter family. We are thankful for the years that we have seen Christall's growth from School, Marriage and Motherhood. We thank God for the years that he gave her after her diagnosis and surgery. To God be the glory and we will certainly miss her dimples and beautiful smile.
We will keep praying for the family. Much Love, George & Precious Irons.

“ I remember Christall's smile and those piercing eyes. We served together at Vacation Bible School at Decatur Bible Chapel. Although it was years ago I remember her enthusiasm to lead the children in singing those VBS songs!!. She had such energy that was contagious and the children just loved it!! Even though this is a sad time, her Lord was well pleased with her service then and now. He says to her "Well done thou good and faithful servant" .

“ Christall in so many ways you were the rock of your family. I have so many wonderful memories of you & you loved me no matter what. You were such an amazing person & friend. Lawd have mercy. I remember when you called me up our senior year in high school (Reggie was a freshmen in college) & asked me to take you to visit Reggie @ Ga Southern. I was the friend w/the car & it was a surprise visit. You, me & Heather snuck off & my car quit halfway there lol You & I kept turning the keys in the ignition of the car & looking under the hood...as Heather waited in the back seat lol We were a bit panicked because we didn't want to call any of our parents. We contemplated which set of parents to call, and you basically said that calling one set of parents was effectively calling all 3 sets. I told you that we were definitely starting with yours, because this was your idea & we were in the situation because you loved you some Reggie👁️👁️😭 (paraphrasing). This was pre-cell phone so we would've had to walk 2-3 miles to the next exit & pray that there was a gas station w/a pay phone lol I turned my keys one last time & the car started! We did what teenagers do - instead of going home (duh) we stayed on mission. You got to spend the day w/Reggie and we had no car problems on the way home. You drove us home. So much has happened since then. I love you, and you are one of the most loyal & caring friends I've ever had. I wish it was me instead of you. Real talk. Salute Sis. I love you forever.

My heart is heavy for your family today. Now we know why Christall was in such a hurry to be born and not only that she started walking I believe and 6 months old. I believe she was getting out of the way for her brothers. She knew she had work to do and she took the challenge with love.

I love you Trotter family and I'm watching the service from Portland Oregon and I will see you when I visit Georgia again. Love always, Malinda Lett Buckles and Ken Buckles💕
