To the entire Allen family my beautiful cousins, Wayne was truly loved I knew him more as a young man when we were growing up on my many visits to ATL from Chicago. I will cherish the memories I recently had with him.

You all have not lost a brother a son an Uncle or a friend you have gained an Angel to continue to watch over you from Heaven. May Wayne rest in Love and be for ever cherished...

Too my brother you will truly be missed. I asked God why him take me and God almost did. I found out he'd passed and the next day I wrecked on I-75 walked away with no injuries or scratches. I know God and my brother had already saw it b4 the wreck happened and I know my brother and God came to my rescue. Thank you! I love ❤️ u brother. Amen 🙏

“ Wayne, you were always so kind and giving. I especially thank you for your photography and capturing all the great moments of Tiffani's graduation celebration in 2017. Most importantly thanks for all the encouraging words of wisdom. I am sending love and prayers to your Mom, Dad, siblings, and other family. Praying that God will watch over them and give them peace.

“ Wayne, sending a tribute on this wall doesn't seem real. I am still in disbelief. Although I didn't see you much but what I do know you had such a warming spirit about yourself. I will never forget the photo shoot we had with my 2 sons. You were so patient and kind the entire time as hot as it was that day. I won't look at this as the end because I know you had a relationship with Jesus. This isn't the end, instead until we meet again. Rest in heaven cousin. You will be missed but will never be forgotten ❤️

*Love you cousin,

“ I have known Chris since kindergarten. He would remind me of how he loved my name and that I was the little girl doing cartwheels in class with the pigtails. He would tell that story all the way into our high school years. We would laugh so hard about it. Chris had this sense of humor and humbleness that would always put a smile on your face. Even after so many years after we graduated high school in 1989. I am so grateful that we got a chance to chit chat before his transition. Rest in peace, my friend and brother in spirit! You will be missed.

“ I worked with Chris many years ago but I never will forget how much he made me laugh every single day. I was so happy that we could reconnect on Facebook. He was such a bright light in so many people's lives. I am just so sad to hear this. Rest in Peace Chris. You will not be forgotten.

“ Wayne, we didn't see each other often but when we did, our conversations always felt like we had just spoken the other day. Heaven has received another angel. Although, I question “why” I know God has a plan for us all. When I see you again....our conversation will feel as if we just spoke the other day. Rest well....love you Cousin Candy Allen King
