“ Chris and my dad we're friends back in the 90's I assume they met working on RAFB, however some of my fondest childhood memories were going to his house on the north side of Warner Robins he used to bump Too Short lol, and he also had a pan African shop called Culture Plus if I remember correctly and he thought me so much with his library of books , assortment of flavored chewing sticks, and oils. His willingness to teach was a beautiful gift from God. It came on my heart to google his name this morning and attempt to reach out but this is what I find. So my condolences to his family.

“ To Chris, Jr, Chellis, & the Benton family, we were devastated to hear that our dear family friend has transitioned to another plain. I would be remissed if I didn't thank him for introducing us to who we truly are, Moorish Americans. I pray that the Most High A.L.L.A.H be pleased with his earthly duties. May Brother Benton-El find peace, love, & light during his new journey. 🙌🏾✌️🇺🇸 L.T.P.F.J. From Louis, Rochelle, Gabrielle, & Louis, III Hayward-El ❤️
