It so hard , we just not to long lost my dear loving sister. And Chris and his wife would always call me , and also send me Christmas card and he was always say hey auntie. I will miss him calling me auntie , and miss the Christmas card he and is wife would send to me . I also remember when he was much younger and me and my children came over to visit my sister and her family . And we would sleep in Chris bed , cause at the time he was a bouncer at a club, and he will get home late and I will tell him come on boy get in his bed I want bit you , and he would smile about it . And he would get in the bed and we would talk till I fell asleep.I am going to miss that smile he had . He had a smile that would light up the world. Love always your auntie Hattie.
