

Clara Delores Briant

August 28, 1934 - September 23, 2024

Clara Delores Briant was born the seventh of eight children. She was the last surviving sibling of four sisters and three brothers, Booker T. Brinkley, Charlie Lee Moore, Eunice (Curtis, Sr.) Jackson, Mabel (Marvin) Andrews, Leatha (Raymond) Jones, Modina (Franklin) Paulk, and Cleveland B. Moore.

Clara traveled the world with her beloved husband, Billy Briant who was a Retired Master Sergeant in the United States Air Force after serving twenty-five years. Professionally, Clara served as a practical nurse and teacher for several years. She was also known for her beautiful voice that could set the church ablaze. She loved children and taught them bible history in Sunday School. She was a historian and spent several years researching and documenting her family's history and lineage. Ultimately, her work was published in the Library of Congress.

Even when Clara's memory failed her, her faith did not. She never forgot how much she loved the Lord and how much He loved her. She continued to praise the Lord and respond to prayer up until the end of her life.

Clara is preceded in death by her husband, Billy D. Briant, all of her children, Henry Sharpe, Jr. ("Ricky"), Gergory Sharpe, and Derrick Sharpe, and all of her siblings. She is survived by a host of family and friends who loved her dearly.
