“ I could not have asked for a better person to be a grandmother to my son. She never hesitated when it came to Daniel and his well being. She accepted me as her daughter and treated me as such the rest of her life.

She and Pop Pop picked up Daniel from the bus stop everyday. Rain or shine. And it was never a question if he could stay because of my working hours.

I was her Lydi and she was my mom. Thank you LeMond for bringing this amazing, loving lady into my life.

Mrs. Clara Newbold was a Wonderful, Loving, Godly Woman. She was my Spiritual Mother, my Sister, and my very best Friend. She was a part of my life for over 45 years. We met at church, and attended many services together. She was a devout christian, and a woman of strong spiritual and moral character. She had a kind, loving, generous heart. To her Family, I send my love and deepest condolences with prayers.
